

CHAD'S INTRO

If there is one thing that is constant in our personal and professional lives, it is CHANGE! You and I live in an era of unprecedented change and constant challenges. Chad Hymas is an example of how to deal with change and challenges.

On April 3, 2001, Chad's life changed instantaneously when a falling one-ton bale of hay broke his neck leaving him a quadriplegic. Doctors said he would never walk again and that for the rest of his life he would be confined to a wheelchair. But Chad's dreams were NOT paralyzed that day. Likewise, each of us here at (your company name) will at times face challenges that might try to paralyze us. But they don't have to!

Chad is now a world-class wheelchair athlete playing basketball, full contact quad rugby, and he races marathons. Chad set a new world record by wheeling a personal marathon of over 500 miles from Salt Lake City to Las Vegas. Yet Chad counts as his greatest accomplishment the fact that he remains a devoted husband to his loving wife, Shondell, and proud father to their four children.

I've asked Chad to share three specific things with us today:

#1

#2

#3

His message is powerful, and his accomplishments are amazing!

So get ready to SOAR as Chad shares with you “Who Needs Legs When You Have Wings?”